FOR WORKING OPPORTUNITIES

Welcome to issue 4 of Hextol Happenings. I hope you're all safe and well.

Keep sending in your stories, pictures, recipes and everything. We love getting them. It's great to hear from you. So enjoy this issue and remember Stay Home – Protect the NHS – Save Lives

Bruce

Let's see what people have been up to this week...

Becki has been helping her nephew, Leighton, with the gardening.

Rebecca has been making cookies for her family.

We promised we would let you know how James got on with his Lego Landrover... Well, it's now finished! We didn't realise it was going to be so BIG. If Hextol ever needs a new van for the gardening teams, we know just who to ask. Well done, James! What a great way to keep busy during lockdown!

And who knows what Cherie's family got up to while her back was turned?!

The Views from our Windows

Thank you those who sent in pictures of the view from their windows. See if you can match the people with their views, using the clues!

Bruce: Bruce's feathered friends often lay him something tasty for his breakfast.

Cherie: Cherie can look out of her window to see how busy Tescos is before deciding whether to go there.

Nicky: If you look carefully, you might just spot the Abbey in the distance.

Olivia: Someone is admiring the view on a beautiful Spring day.

Claire: Looks like Claire has the perfect sunny spot there to enjoy a glass of gin cup of tea.

Trevor: We all know how much Trevor loves making things, so look out for his workbench.
